DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claim 1-15, drawn to a PTH assay control, classified in class 435, subclass 86.
 - II. Claim 1, 16-18, drawn to a method to verify the accuracy of a PTH assay, classified in class 436, subclass 512.
 - III. Claim 1, 2, 19-20, drawn to a method to improve the accuracy of a PTH assay, classified in class 435, subclass 7.1.
 - IV. Claim 1, 2, 21-24, drawn to a method to verify the accuracy of a combination of PTH assays, classified in class 436, subclass 517.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II-IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case the product recited in group I, can be used in a materially different process, such as isolation and purification.
3. Inventions II and III-IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the feature of comparing the known concentrations of the one or more components in the control or previously obtained value of the control in group II, is not required by the claims of group III-IV. The feature of determining each of the PTH components and the ratio of PTH components in the control in group III, is not required by the claims of group II and IV. The feature of evaluating the control by detecting whole PTH and PTH fragments and determining the concentration of the whole PTH and PTH fragments in the control in group IV, is not required by the claims of group II-III.

Art Unit: 1641

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, and the search required for one group is not required for the other, therefore restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
